Copenhagen, April 7.

THe Swedish Minister here has presented a Memorial to the King of Denmark, wherein he offers, as we are informed, the King his Masters Mediation for the composing the differences that do depend between his Majesty of Denmark and the Duke of Holstein, and acquaints him with the King of Swedens intention to transport some Troops to his Territories in Germany, to reinforce his Garisons there. The diligence that is used here in fitting out the Ships the King has resolved to put to Sea, is very extraordinary, and part of them are almost ready to Sail.

Vienna, April 11. On Thursday last arrived here the Duke of Lorrain, who went directly to the Palace to wait upon the Emperor, and the next day a Council of War was held, where, as we are informed, it was resolved, That the Imperial Army, which is to Rendezvous the third of the next Month near Presbourg, shall consist of 40000 Men; That General Schutz shall, with 7000 Men, joyn the 6000 Polish Horse, which the Chevalier Lubomirski brings into the Emperors Service, and the Hungarian Troops, which together may make a Body of 25000 Men, and these are to act in upper Hungary; That another Body of 6000 Men shall Encamp near Leopolstadt on the Waag, and in case they find the Turks have a design upon that place, they are to put themselves into it. And besides these, ten or twelve thousand Men are to be Posted on the Frontiers of Moravia and Silesia, to secure those Countreys against the Incursions of the Turks. From Hungary they write, That Count Teckely makes great Preparations for the Campagne, and that he has sent to the Bassa of Buda, to demand a Body of Horse, to joyn with his Troops, in order to their making an Incursion into Silesia: The Letters add, That most of the Nobility of Upper Hungary are very much dissatisfied with him, and have refused to obey his Summons for their following him into the Field. There are Advices which give an account, That the Grand Signior is on his March towards Belgrade, and that an Army of Tartars is to Rendezvous the 25 Instant at Pest, not far from Buda.

Ratisbonne, April 12. The Point of the Publick Security being with great earnestness recommended to the Diet by the Imperial Commissioner the Bishop d'Aichstadt, the Electoral Colledge did on Saturday last enter upon the Consideration of it; and after some debate, declared, That for as much as the danger which the impending War with the Turks threatens, not only the Hereditary Countries, but even the whole Empire does encrease daily, they are of opinion that nothing is more earnestly to be desired for the Safety of the Empire, in this Conjuncture than the establishing a firm Peace with the Crown of France, and that this being done, they will take such Resolutions as may be farther necessary for the Publick Security; and that therefore they do adhere to their Conclusion of the 12th of December. At the same time the Colledge of Princes have resolved, to return their most humble Thanks to the Emperor for his Fatherly Care of the Common Safety of the Empire, of which he gives daily Instances in this difficult and dangerous Conjuncture; And that seeing the Partition of the Quota's of the Army of the Empire has been agreed by the several Circles, it is necessary to appoint the general Officers, and that accordingly they are of opinion that the Command of General of the Army of the Empire should be conferred on Prince Waldecke, a Person of great Abilities and Experience in War; and that at the same time that they dispatch the Point of the Publick Security, they will do what lies in them to advance the Negotiation of Peace with the Crown of France. The Imperial Regiments that have had their Quarters in the Empire are now marching for Hungary.

Hamburg, April 23. The Letters from Copenhagen tell us, That the King of Denmark has appointed the Rendezvous of his Troops in Holstein, to be the fourth of May, at which he will be himself present. From Stockholm they write, That there was a discourse at that Court, That the King of Sueden, to avoid giving his Neighbours any Jealousie, would defer the transporting the Troops he designs to send over for Germany, till there be a pressing occasion for it, and that in the mean time he will raise 4000 Men in Germany, which he is to assist the Emperor with against the Turks. From Warsaw they tell us, That there was arrived an Ambassador from the Czar of Moscovy, but that the business he came about was not yet known, though some reported that he had Orders to assure the King of Poland that the Czars desired to enter into an Alliance with him and the Emperor, for their mutual defence against the Turks. It's said that by the League now concluded between the Emperor and the Crown of Poland, it is stipulated, That the Polish Army shall act separately towards the Ukraine, but if Vienna or Cracaw shall be Besieged by the Turks, then the Imperial and Polish Forces are to joyn together for their relief.

Brussels, April 23. About the end of this Month the Marquiss de Grana intends to go to Antwerp, and from thence to Gaunt, where he purposes to pass greatest part of the Summer, that he may be near the Camp he designs to have on that side. This Court is much rejoyced with the News of the Alliance being Concluded between the Emperor and the King of Poland: It is Offensive against the Turks, and Defensive against all. They write from Lille, That they are daily expecting there the Mareschal d'Humieres; That 18 Companies of the French Guards, and several of the Swisse, are arrived at Lille, Tournay, and Douay, to supply the room of the Troops that are Marched from thence
